

The Richmond Climax.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1907.

—Cow for sale. See local ad.

—Stawberry Supper Friday night.

—C. U. base ball team will play at Danville Saturday.

—Mrs. Lou L. Hume has received the appointment to the Irvine post office.

—For a first-class buggy, surrey or phaeton, call on John Donelson.

—Chickens, as large as English sparrows, 25c a piece. Why not sell them by the quart?

—Stawberry supper and Berea Glee Club at Court House Friday night, benefit Infirmary.

—J. W. and L. A. Ballard of Whites Station shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati Saturday.

—For a snapshot picture of the Government Building, Mr. R. H. Berry, of C. U., has one on hand.

—The annual competitive drill between the two companies of Central University will take place on Friday, May 25.

—James T. Boggess, nominated by the Madison county Republicans, for county surveyor, declines to make the race.

—Central University Commencement exercises will begin June 6th and continue three days. There will be twelve graduates.

—Senator Jno. D. Harris will cultivate this year about 350 acres of corn, besides about 400 acres of wheat and 125 acres of tobacco.

—A visit to John Donelson's carriage factory will convince you that he has the finest line of buggies, surreys, phaetons, etc., ever displayed in Richmond.

—Miss Mosey Parrish will represent Caldwell High School in the music contest at the Harrodsburg graded school tournament.

—R. N. L. & B. sells round-trip tickets to Harrodsburg for $2.75, May 27, 28 and 29, on account of the Blue Grass Derby.

—Mr. Streng left yesterday for the east to lay in a new line of hats, suits and gents furnishings before the tariff gets its fangs into low prices.

—Harry Crawford, of Madison county, passed through town yesterday with a large drove of stock hogs which he brought at 3 cents—Spout Spring Times.

—Those donating to the supper at Court House Friday night will leave unfrozen cream at Joe Glunichigian's not later than 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

—Commencing May 17th, the C. & O. from Lexington will resume connection with L. & N. train arriving at seven, p. m. Close connection now on all trains via L. & N. both to and from Lexington. May 12-14

—The Peters Lumber Co.'s Mill at Irvine has started again after having been closed down for several months. Their supply of logs will only last about two weeks, when they will close down until another tide in the Kentucky river.

—Still ahead of them all. They can't touch our low prices on first-class groceries. Some may attempt it but invariably fail by the way side. Dull days are a thing of the past at our store. D. Chennault & Co. apr28-14

—Willie Wolfe, who has been making a study of telegraph at the L. N. & E. depot for several months, went up to Paducah, Wednesday to act as agent for a few days in Mr. Ham Smith's place. Willie is a bright boy and learns telegraphy rapidly—Jesse James Journal.

—If you want to be astonished call on us did on S. L. McKillop and examine his line of baronches, phaetons, buggies and road wagons and get his prices for same. The poorest can afford to ride in a vehicle at his prices.

—Come, get our prices on all kinds of groceries, queensware, etc., and compare them with the prices of other stores on first-class goods and you will find us to be at least 15 to 25 per cent cheaper than any grocery house in Richmond. D. Chennault & Co. apr28-14

—There will probably be fine driving on the public roads of the county for the next six months. A new and handsome vehicle can be enjoyed beyond measure. Call on John Donelson and he can supply you with anything from a road wagon to a closed carriage.

—Undoubtedly the cheapest grocery-house in Central Kentucky is D. Chennault & Co., on 24 St., Richmond, Ky. They handle only standard goods and sell them for less than so-called cheap houses charge for trashy stuff. D. Chennault & Co. apr28-14

—The Patrie A. Clay Infirmary will give a strawberry supper at Court House Friday night May 24th, if weather is favorable. The Berea Glee Club will also give an entertainment the same night in Court House the proceeds of which will go to the Infirmary. Admission to supper and entertainment 60 cents, or 25 cents for supper and 50 cents for entertainment.

A Cures in Cobb.

Mrs. Jas. Stouffer sent to this office a vegetable marrow. In some way a corn-cob got into her asparagus bed and right straight up through the cob an asparagus branch sprouted. It grew and swelled until the cob burst partially open, but the plant is securely imbedded, and we have it on exhibition.

Stouffer for Mayor.

Elsewhere in to-day's CLIMAX will be found the announcement of J. B. Stouffer for Mayor of Richmond, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Stouffer is one of Richmond's leading merchants, and once a member of the City Council, and if elected Mayor will discharge the duties of the office with care.

—Go to Court House Friday night.

—The values of what people wear is a matter of daily experience.

—Is seen or used only occasionally may have a varying value, but the article in everyday use must possess a value against which it is impossible for an individual to array his personal expression.

The only goods that will stand the test of time are those that are made of good materials. That is the kind we have. You get just what we tell you. We have good clothing of the kind in price and in many cases lower than you pay others. See them before buying. Covington & Mitchell.

W. C. RINEBASSON, Gen'l Pass'g Agt., Cincinnati, O.

A Long Partnership Ended.

After thirty years duration the firm of Shackelford & Gentry is dissolved.

Mr. D. B. Shackelford continuing the business. Mr. Gentry has probably been in business here as long as any merchant, is equally well known and popular. The dissolution is by mutual consent and the relations existing are perfectly amicable, as indicated by Mr. Gentry's card, elsewhere in the CLIMAX.

Turnpikes Purchased.

At a special meeting of the Fiscal Court last Saturday to consider the question of buying the turnpikes, the committee bought fourteen miles of road for $1000.

From Waco, College Hill and Kentucky River Turnpike Co., 8 miles, $1200; Tates Creek Ridge road pike, better known as Jacks Creek pike, 6 miles, $400.

The committee meets Saturday to purchase more roads. The Fiscal Court will meet May 24th to confirm sales and make levy to pay for same.

Stockholders Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Stockholders of the Richmond and Lexington Turnpike Road Company at the office of the Farmer's National Bank, Richmond, Ky., on Saturday, May 22, 1897, to consider the propriety of selling that part of the road lying between Richmond and the Kentucky river. It is important that Stockholders be present in person or by proxy.

S. S. PARKS, President, May 12-24

Sam Kennedy Weds.

Genial, popular Sam Kennedy, of Kennedy & Coyle, was united in marriage on Sunday morning at Jellico, to Miss Daisy Cook, the beautiful young daughter of Capt. L. G. Cook, this city.

The marriage was witnessed by the bride's sister, Miss Bertha, and Mr. Otto Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy are visiting the groom's father at Carlisle, but will reside in this city, where many friends wish them all happiness and prosperity.

They are After You.

The ad. of White and Gibson reminds us of the Richmond boy who told his girl when she "shook" him that he was all smiles on his face, but tears at his heart.

The firm mentioned have indulged their customers long and patiently and even yet represent their discomfiture at the continued disregard of their appeals for money. This is "smiles and tears." Drop in and see Messrs. White & Gibson, and give them some "encouragement." They have in their new stock, and you just ought to see it.

Lancaster's Declamatory Contest.

The gold medal contest was well attended on Friday night, the receipts amounting to $66. The young ladies acquitted themselves very creditably and evinced much taste and study by the easy and elegant manner of reciting. The judges were Messrs. P. H. Sullivan, J. Talbot Jackson and Cabell H. Chennault, of Richmond, who rendered a unanimous decision in favor of Miss Alberta, the beautiful and gifted daughter of Mr. S. H. Anderson. Her subject was, "Your Mission," and the delivery was almost faultless—Stanford Journal.

Thanks Extended.

To The People of Madison and Adjoining Counties.

After thirty consecutive years in the hardware business, as a member of the firm of Shackelford & Gentry I have retired. I take this means of thanking my numerous friends and customers for the liberal patronage. It is with great reluctance that I sever my pleasant relations with those who have so long befriended me. I trust the house will receive a continuation of the patronage hitherto enjoyed, and heartily commend it to my friends.

R. L. GENTRY.

In Danger.

He of the Standard items certainly drives the goose quill in a manner that is well calculated to disturb the "peace, quietude and solemnity" of the gentle sex who enjoy taking a "spin" astride their "bike," say the Harrodsburg Sayings.

And we expect some fine morning, when he is resting nicely and indulging in some pleasant daydream, that a team of "fair-bikes," armed with rolling-pins, shovels, butcher knives and other weapons of war, will swoop down on him; and we are sore afraid when they take their departure there will not be enough of his physical structure left to grease a tesson.

Ex-Judge A. J. Tharp Elected Commissioner.

Judge A. J. Tharp, of Winston, Edill county, one of the most prominent G. A. R. men in Kentucky, was elected Department Commander at the Kentucky G. A. R. Encampment at Lexington last week. The candidates were: A. J. Tharp, of Winston, G. W. Erdman, of Louisville, and E. P. James, of Morgantown. Tharp was elected on the first ballot, he receiving 119 votes, as against 73 for Erdman and 25 for James.

He was declared Commander, and with a few fitting remarks, took the seat and gavel laid down by General Whedon.

Full list of officers elected are: State Commander, A. J. Tharp; Senior Vice Commander, R. F. Martin, Louisville; Junior Vice, J. R. Spikes, Lexington; Medical Director, Dr. Kimberly; Historian, J. W. Sanders, Louisville; Chaplain, Rev. Louis Robinson, colored; Scribe, Assistant Adjutant General, Geo. T. Grinstead, of Winston; Assistant Quartermaster General, James Moore, Winston; Council of Administration, Wm. Herndon, Lancaster; Prof. Dodge, Berea; John T. Russell, Greensburg; J. F. Kimbrell, Owensboro; John Shepherd, Louisville, delegates to National Convention, Phil. Hager, Louisville; J. H. Brown, Louisville; W. G. Adams, Butler county; J. H. Boone, Bath county; John Walsh, Mayfield.

Bowling Green was selected as the place for holding the sixteenth annual Encampment in 1898.

Bright Girls.

Says an Exchange. Over at Crow Point, Ind., the girls have formed a "Marriageable Ladies' League," to abjure matrimony unless the masculine applicant patronizes his home paper. For according to the constitution of the League, failure to patronize one's home paper, "is strong evidence of a lack of intelligence, and he will prove too stingy to provide for a family, educate his children and encourage institutions of learning in the community." These are sensible girls, and there are very few even of our most educated contemporaries which a sensible man would not be willing to patronize in order to qualify himself for marriage into the League.

Lexington's Handsome Court House Destroyed by Fire.

Last Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock the handsome Fayette county court house was discovered to be on fire, and only the walls now remain of that once beautiful structure.

At 10 o'clock the large bell, weighing 2,500 lbs., striking the famous statue, "Triumph of Chastity," which was in the rotunda of the court house, and broke into a thousand pieces. The statue was the masterpiece of the Kentucky Sculptor, Joel T. Hart, and was purchased twelve years ago by the ladies of the Hart Memorial Association of Tiffany & Co., New York, for $5,000. The ladies of the Association will attempt to gather up all the pieces and restore the work of art as much as possible.

The damage to the court house was very great, but it is believed that it can be restored at a cost not exceeding the amount of insurance, $55,000. The building was erected in 1883-4 at a cost of $112,000. More than $50,000 has been expended on improvements since then.

The circuit court room contained many valuable portraits, which were all destroyed. A portrait of Jesse Bledsoe and one of William T. Barry were painted by Jonett. Other portraits which adorn the walls were those of Henry Clay, Richard H. Meffee, James O. Harrison, Madison C. Johnson, Judge George Robertson, Francis K. Hunt, John C. Breckinridge, Judge Charles Thomas and Judge Richardson. They were the work of such famous painters as Sully, Healy, Gen. S. W. Pelee and Miss Barlow. These valuable art treasures could easily have been saved, and many citizens insisted on removing them at the beginning of the fire, but the firemen and custodians of the building declared there was no danger of the fire reaching the circuit court room. A few minutes later, when the flames were encroaching on that room, an attempt was made to save the pictures, when the dome fell and the would-be rescuers were forced to flee from the building to save their lives. The people of Lexington and Fayette county are filled with sorrow over the loss of these masterpieces of art, for, unlike the court house, they cannot be restored.

Proclamation by the Mayor.

To the Citizens of Richmond, Ky.:

I have been notified that the friends of Liberty and lovers of civility will, on Saturday, May 22d, at 10 a. m., decorate the graves of Confederate Soldiers in our cemetery.

Therefore, I, T. T. Covington, Mayor of the city of Richmond, Ky., do issue this proclamation, calling upon all citizens to take notice and give themselves and employees a holiday from 10 a. m. to 12 m., so all may be able to show their respect for this beautiful ceremony of strewing flowers upon the graves of the Confederate dead.

The pages of history tell of no military performances more brilliant, nor fortitude more enduring, than those gallant and intrepid spirits performed from 1861 to 1865.

Done this May 15th, 1897.

T. T. COVINGTON, Mayor.

Decorating Confederate Graves.

Saturday, May 22d, has been selected by the Confederate Veterans to decorate the graves of their dead comrades. All friends and admirers of brave deeds are invited to participate in this beautiful ceremony.

The schools will be out in a body. Children of Caldwell High School will sing the Bonnie Blue Flag. The procession will form in front of the Court House at 9:30 a. m.

Thos. Collins Camp, No. 215, will form in Court House yard at 9:30 a. m.

John H. Morgan Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, will form in Court House yard, east side, D. R. Tevis, Captain.

Grand Army Post, Union Veterans, are requested to form in front of fountain in Court House yard, Capt. Creed, Commander.

Caldwell High School will form in front of their building on Second street, and march to the Court House square, west side.

Central University Cadets will be formed on Main street, in front of Court House, Lieutenant Vestal, U. S. A., commanding, and will lead the procession.

The Daughters of Confederacy will form in carriages on Second street, in front of Garnett House.

The Richmond Military Band has kindly volunteered to head the procession.

It is requested that all the graves of Confederate, Federal, Mexican war of 1812, and Revolutionary Veterans be marked by small flags. Confederate for first and United States for the others. Joe Collins, David Chennault and W. Frank French, Committee.

J. M. POYNTE, Brig. General.

Thos. THORPE, Major and Chief of Staff.

The following is a list of Confederate Soldiers buried in the cemetery since the war:

Alexander Fife, T. B. Collins, Anderson, Chennault, James M. Clowers, C. S. Coley, W. E. Miller, Chas. Watts, Pat. Cunningham, John A. G. Williamson, George W. Maupin, Arch Maupin, Seth Maupin, James P. Tribble, James Tevis, Dr. Wm. Jennings, Captain Joe Chennault, James Rowland, Robert Freeman, James Smith, Captain John Hagan, William Gillen, Thomas H. Wells, Andy McCord, William Fox, John Terrill, John Tribble, George T. Shackelford, W. G. Ogg, Wallace Embury.

The friends of the dead comrades here mentioned will please mark the graves with a small Confederate flag, so that they may be seen by the Committee on Decoration.

WHAT WE INTEREST

We are not to blame for. We cannot be held responsible for the dispositions and tendencies which we derive from our ancestors, nor are we responsible for the germs of disease which may manifest themselves in our blood as a heritage from former generations. But we are responsible if we allow these germs to develop into serious diseases which will impair our usefulness and destroy our happiness. We are responsible if we transmit to our descendants the diseases germs which it is possible for us to eradicate by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier. This medicine has power to make rich, red blood and establish perfect health in place of disease. May 5-10

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. This wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good.
